College Works Painting

RE: Adam Booth and his team

To Whom It May Concern:

We are writing to give our observations of Adam and his team when they painted our house in June 2009. When originally contacted by Adam, we had scheduled our house to be painted in late May. Unfortunately, due to unusually rainy weather in May, our job had to be pushed back to early June. Adam was very good at keeping us posted regarding when we could expect to see the job begin. We had asked Adam not to start working before 8:00 a.m. and to be considerate of our neighbors with regard to any music playing.

When the work began, Adam introduced us to his team: Garrett Luallin and Mike Kerrigan. They were polite, neat with their work space, and kept the tunes turned down! It was a joy having them on the job site. The entire team had a positive attitude towards their work and completion of the "fine-tuning" adjustments we asked for.

When the job was completed, we were pleased and satisfied with both the finish of the paint and the diligence in staying within the estimated time schedule (despite the potential for rain nearly every afternoon).

Thank-you, College Works Painting, Adam Booth, Garrett Luallin and Mike Kerrigan, for a job well done.

Sincerely,
